Accessible Voting Unit Available for Voters with Disabilities

Voters with disabilities may cast their ballot using an accessible voting unit located at the Registrar of Voters office. The accessible voting unit is available Monday - Friday, from 8am-5pm. The City of Riverside Election is conducted completely by mail ballot, which means there are no established polling places. Voters residing in Riverside will receive all of their voting material in the mail including their official ballot. For more information regarding the accessible voting unit or voting options for voters with disabilities please contact the Registrar of Voters at 951-486-7200.
