

ELECTION ADVISORY COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION REPORT

September 22, 2022

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Riverside County Board of Supervisors directed the Registrar of Voters and Executive Office to create and implement an organized meeting body to review the electoral process and provide a public forum for members of the public to receive information, ask questions, and raise concerns about the electoral process. On March 29, 2022, the Board unanimously approved the Election Advisory Committee proposal.

The Committee is tasked with preparing a report identifying public feedback and recommendations after each statewide election which will be presented to the Registrar of Voters Ad Hoc Committee, Board of Supervisors, Registrar of Voters, and Executive Office.

On August 11, 2022, the Committee held a public meeting to discuss the June 7, 2022, primary election. This report reflects the feedback and recommendations collected from the meeting.

BACKGROUND

On March 10, 2020, Riverside County Board Supervisor Kevin Jeffries presented Agenda Item 3.1 recommending that the Executive Office evaluate the creation of a Citizens Commission on Election Integrity as a means for an organized meeting body to review the electoral process and hear from the public on concerns regarding the County's election process.

On May 11, 2021, the Board of Supervisors received a November 2020 Election After-Action report from the Executive Office. As part of the discussion related to that item, the Board directed the Registrar of Voters and Executive Office to re-examine the concept of the Citizens Commission on Election Integrity and return with an implementation recommendation.

On August 24, 2021, the Registrar of Voters and Executive Office presented Agenda Item 3.3 to implement an enhanced Election Observer Panel to increase voter confidence in the election process. The Board directed the Executive Office to return with a revised proposal which would closely align with the Citizens Commission on Election Integrity concept.

On March 29, 2022, the Registrar of Voters and Executive Office presented Agenda Item 3.4 recommending that the Board approve the implementation of the Election Advisory Committee. The intent of the Committee is to provide recommendations to the Registrar of Voters Ad Hoc Committee, Board of Supervisors, Executive Office, and Registrars of Voters on improvements to the electoral process to ensure voter confidence and public trust in how the County conducts elections. Additionally, the Committee will provide a public forum by way of public meetings for voters to receive information, ask questions, and raise concerns about the electoral process.

The Board unanimously approved the proposal, and the Registrar of Voters and Executive Office has implemented the formation of the Committee.

Public Comment

One member of the public submitted public comment regarding releasing digital images of ballots. County Counsel advised that the records sought are exempt from disclosure and further advised that the Registrar had received a public records act request previously from a member of the public seeking the same information. County Counsel advised that it would provide a copy of that response to the member of the public. per Election Codes §2300, 3017, 15370 and 17301 and the Riverside County Registrar of Voters will not produce "ballot images" in any form, digital or physical.

County Counsel has advised that a copy of the prior Public Records Act response was provided to the member of the public via email.

Greetings Ms. Ruiz,

Below is a short essay containing information I would like to provide to the Riverside County Election Advisory Committee members for their August meeting. Please reply to this email to indicate that you were able to provide it to them.

Honorable Commission Members,

I urge this commission to consider advocating for the release of Digital Ballot Images as 'public records', records that can be provided to the public for use in auditing elections.

Newer election systems, including the Dominion system used by Riverside County, create electronic images of the ballots, which are then used to tabulate the vote.

As we have seen in recent events, not only does the winner in an election have to acknowledge the results, even more importantly, those who come in second must satisfy themselves that the results were accurate. Facilitating the release of the ballot images would help all stakeholders in an election, as they could use private computer programs to verify the results.

Presently, California law allows, but does not require, jurisdictions to release ballot images after an election. San Francisco County currently releases them (see the reference in the last paragraph of the linked press release: <https://sfelections.sfgov.org/article/san-francisco-department-elections-certifies-june-7-2022-consolidated-statewide-direct>).

I've included a link to the United States Elections Assistance Commission that mentions Ballot Image Audits on page 6:

Another organization with extensive information about Ballot Image Audits is Citizens' Oversight Project, or COPS (citizenoversight.org).

COPS has developed one of the private computer programs, Audit Engine. A case study of its use in three Florida counties is outlined in <https://copswiki.org/Common/M1970> .

Please contact me directly at greg@tabercompany.com if I can be of assistance on this issue.

Thank you for your attention to this issue.

Sincerely,
